Emma: Sure! Good idea! What will we do there?

Harry: We will help clean up the park and pick up all the rubbish.

Emma: OK! Sounds interesting. When is it?

Harry: This Saturday morning. It starts at 10 a.m. and finishes at 2 p.m.

Emma: That's cool! I really think we should help out.

Harry: Shall we invite our friends?

Emma: Good thinking! I'll call Anna and Billy. We can meet there at 9 a.m.

Harry: Perfect! I must call Ms Lewis and let her know we're going.

Hi Harry!

How are you? Guess what! I've joined the Environmental Club at my school. It's really cool! It's called The Go Green Club! We meet every Wednesday at four o'clock in Room 6C.

When we meet, we think of ways to make the world around us a better and greener place! We have already put recycling bins in every classroom and we have organised a 'green team'. The pupils in the team have to go around the school and turn off lights and taps or look for other ways we can go green!

Next week, we are going to have a clean-up day. We are going to go to Rocky Beach and collect rubbish. We are also going to start a compost bin and put it in the school grounds. Isn't that a cool idea?

Why don't you start an environmental club at your school, too? After all, our motto is: 'If we all work together, Mother Earth will live forever!'

Take care,

David
