

BOOK REVIEW – SUCCESS CRITERIA

Writing a book review

- I included the title of the book and the names of the author and illustrator.
- I identified the book genre.
- I briefly described the plot.
- I described the setting.
- I listed all the main characters.
- I compared the book to another book, movie and/or event.
- I described my favourite part of the book.
- I stated who I would recommend the book to and why.
- I rated the book fairly.
- I made sure I have not given away the ending of the book.
- I used the first person (I).
- I used the present tense.
- I used capital letters appropriately.
- My sentences and phrases ended with the correct punctuation mark
- I checked for spelling errors.
- My book review is neat and legible.

